

GIHE

Griffith Institute for Higher Education

Australia's Service Learning Summit

Service learning is attracting growing interest in Australian universities, schools and not-for-profit organisations. This includes considering how service learning might address the need for a broad range of work integrated learning experiences in universities. This Summit will provide an opportunity to explore the various dimensions of service learning and its connections to work integrated learning.

Participants will have the opportunity to hear from national and international experts in the field and to consider implications of service learning for the curriculum and student engagement.

This summit will include an exploration of the role of partnerships to ensure reciprocity in relationships.

Date and time: Friday 18 May 2012 (10.00 am - 4:00 pm) (Optional breakfast and dinner)
This event will be conducted during Australia's National Volunteer Week.

Venue: Brisbane CBD area, Australia.

Registration: $185 (+ GST) per person (early bird costs to be announced).

EOI Survey: Please register your interest in attending here

For more information or to register your interest in attending, please contact Griffith University's Service Learning office on:

Email: sl-summit@griffith.edu.au

Phone: +61 (0)7 3382 1781

